

Reflective Treasures from ED 692, Special Topics
Curriculum and Instruction for Teaching English Language
Learners
Fall 2012
Black Hills State University

This is designed to be a short reflective overview of your learning week-by-week. On this folder, save the thoughts/ideas/content/graphics, which mattered to you, from each class session. Feel free to use words or graphics.

Use this model for Weeks One and Two, at which time I will begin to share ppt. cyberspace files in ppt.

Students will keep reflections from each week of class.

Week Three: The instructor will begin to share other media formats.

Week Six: Part A is due on Discussion Board, 9/25. Part A must contain a photograph of you; all contact/ID information; learning reflections from Weeks One through Five. (5 pts.)

Week Nine: Part B is due on Discussion Board, 10/16, 10 pts. Part B includes all of Part A, and reflections on each week until 10/26, when it is due on DB. (10 pts.)

Week Thirteen: Part C, the final cyberspace file is due with reflections for each week of learning. (15 pts.) Students may use Word or ppt., but other forms of new media are highly encouraged.
